ENTERTAINMENTS

Wednesday evening was a gala one in very young society. Miss Gladys and Masters Bertram and James Dedman entertained their little friends quite royally at the Bethel House, a cake-walk, dancing and games being the popular amusements. A very fascinating feature was the hour, from seven to ten, proving to the entire satisfaction of the youthful participants that they had outgrown the afternoon party. The double parlors were elaborately decorated with palms, and Miss Gladys Dedman and Lady Anne McLenore served frappe in a corner which was beautified by masses of green foliage. A grand cake-walk in the dining room resulted in the prize for Miss Annie May Fleming and Master James Dedman. Refreshments especially suitable to childish taste were served during the evening, and the little folks are indebted to their hosts and hostess for a charming evening.

The J. A. O. Circle was delightfully entertained Friday evening by Miss Mattie Alexander at her home on South Garden street. Several interesting contests were engaged in, which produced much enjoyment; one of the features was a game of authors, the contestants being required to answer certain questions with the names of prominent writers. During the evening delicious refreshments were served. The Circle will have its next meeting with Miss Eugenia Mitchell.

Miss Anna Evans entertained the following with a delightful card party Friday evening, in honor of Miss Sarah Cecil of Danville, Ky.: Miss Eva James and Henry Evans, Miss Mary Rains and J. S. Robinson, Miss Jean Dobbins and Granville Coleman, Miss Rebecca Williamson and William Evans, Miss Annie Williamson and Richard Cheairs, Miss Sarah Cecil and Sam Harlan, Miss Pat and Fred Evans, Miss Helen Rockwell and Will Howard.

The Fortnight Review Club met last Saturday morning at the home of Miss Willie Figuers. A review of foreign news was given by Miss Anne Fleming, and of home news by Miss Caroline Williams. An instructive and entertaining paper on China, read by the hostess, Miss Figuers, was a fitting finale to a meeting of unusual interest. The club will meet with Miss Williams, March 16th.

Miss Bessie Dainwood entertained a few of her friends very delightfully Saturday evening, complimentary to Miss Ethel Hodges, of Franklin.

The Students' Club will meet this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock with Mrs. H. P. Figuers.

Fire on East Hill.

A small fire occurred yesterday on East Hill, just beyond the corporate limits. The house of Minnie Russell caught fire, and was totally destroyed, with a portion of its contents. The alarm was given, but, as the fire was outside the city, the company did not go. The loss was small.

RELIGIOUS NEWS.

Dr. Martin's discourse at the First Methodist church Sunday night was a masterful effort delivered to a large, attentive and appreciative audience. His subject was the "Steps of Life, and how to Ascend Them," and his conclusion was, first, have a purpose or plan, and aim high; second, work that plan patiently, perseveringly, steadfastly, refusing to be sidetracked by any doubts or fears or temptations; third, "take God in." He said that in all his travels around the world he had never seen a man who had made the best of his talents, who had accomplished all in life that he should, who had not taken God into his life's work. Robt. G. Ingersoll—brilliant, big-hearted and brainy—might have held the highest office in the gift of the people of this country, if he had not made the fatal mistake of leaving God out of his calculations. The song service preceding the discourse, was exceptionally good, and the anthem by the full choir, was simply grand.

At the meeting of the Church Workers of the South Columbia Methodist church Monday night, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: W. D. Cameron, President; J. H. Chaffin, First Vice-President; Mrs. J. H. Thomas, Second Vice-President; John H. Thomas, Secretary; Mrs. W. D. Cameron, Treasurer; T. R. Griggs, Chaplain. The financial report for the past year showed that the society had accomplished excellent work. Efforts will now be made to increase the membership, and thereby increase the interest and work.

The L. U. P. M. will meet with Mrs. W. S. Young this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Subject, Gal. 6:9.

Rev. W. J. Collier, pastor of the Methodist church at Franklin, will exchange pulpits with Rev. A. P. McFerrin next Sunday. He will preach both morning and evening.

AROUND TOWN.

Rube Swansburg is on the sick list. Mr. J. P. McGaw, Jr., is on the sick list.

Dr. W. C. Sheppard is confined to his bed, and is quite ill. Mrs. Eugene Lechridge, after a long illness, is able to be out again.

Gentle springtime has been giving us a sample of what will come later on. Mrs. F. K. Markle and little child are both sick at their home at Riverside.

Mr. A. B. Rains' friends are glad to see him out again after a spell of the grip. Miss Anne Fleming of this city, has taken charge of the public school at Zion.

A number of persons came in from the country to attend the lecture Tuesday night. Messrs. Brittain & Abbott this week received a car-load of granite from Oglesby, Ga.

Esquire R. H. Guest, who has been suffering with the grip, is able to be at his office again. Mr. Milt Carr, who was stricken with paralysis several weeks ago, is in a very critical condition.

Mr. J. W. Shelton, who has been ill in St. Louis with the grip, is recovering and will be home soon. Miss Ida Adkisson, who underwent an operation for appendicitis several days since, continues to improve.

The merchants are busy now, getting in their new spring goods. Frank Whitthorne is able to be out again, after being confined to his room for sometime with pneumonia.

Mr. Edna Wilson, accompanied by his son Stanley, of Arkansas, is here visiting his brother, Mr. Ernest Wilson. The Red Seal Bakery is out with a pretty new bread wagon. Ed Voss is an up-to-date baker and business man.

Elizabeth Porter has filed a bill for divorce from Robert Porter, in the Chancery Court. The parties are colored. If March makes its exit as "lion-like" as its entrance was "lamb-like," we may look out for some very rough weather.

Mr. J. S. Walters of Chattanooga, has arrived to succeed Mr. J. P. Caldwell as agent for the Standard Oil Company in this city. Miss Nettie Green has resumed her dress-making business at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Schuneman, on East 6th street.

Miss Edna Peters was painfully bruised several days since by falling. However, she has now about recovered from her injuries. Mr. W. A. Sanders, who has been quite sick at the home of Mr. John Martin, corner South High and Ninth streets, is improving.

Monday was another big mule day in town. A large number of the long eared animals were brought in, and a good many changed hands. Hope Rebecca Lodge has had a number of initiations lately. The Rebecca degree will be conferred upon five or six new members Monday night.

Misses Addie and Mary Wood are now the proud possessors of a beautiful new piano, presented to them this week by their father and brother, Lonnie. Mr. J. Proctor Polk has been promoted to the position of acting chief train dispatcher at this place during the illness of Chief Train Dispatcher W. B. Milam.

Street Overseer Dodson, is doing some good work on Fifth street, between North Garden and North Main, filling in the ditches and making it level with the street. Phineas Lodge, Knights of Pythias, had quite a busy time Friday night. Five candidates were initiated into the mysteries of the first rank, and one was raised to the second rank.

Mr. Jack Baguosa, whose home near Neapolis was recently destroyed by fire, has moved his family to town, and is now occupying the Chaffin house corner of Ninth and Embargo streets. Arch Lipscomb, who has been keeping books for G. W. Nichols, has accepted a position with Lazarus Bros. Arra Hertz, who has been with Chaffin Bros., will take his place at Mr. Nichols'.

Rev. F. J. Tyler is having his residence, now occupied by Mr. Harry Martin, renovated and porch added. The street running from Ninth street to the house will be nicely macadamized. Tuesday night was the coldest night this winter. The official thermometer at Rains' drug store registered eighteen degrees above zero, but at other places in the city the mercury fell to fifteen.

DRESS MAKING.—Having recovered my health, I will resume dress making at once. My former friends and patrons, and the public generally, are invited to give me a call at No. 9, East Sixth street. MISS NETTIE GREEN.

Leonard Bangs, the negro who out Armstrong Bradshaw, colored, has been bound over to the Criminal Court on the State's warrant taken out against him. He has not yet been tried in the city court.

That winter has not yet made its exit, was shown Monday night, when a breeze from the Arctic regions waited itself this way. It tried to snow Tuesday morning, but old Sol came out and wouldn't let it.

WANTED.—Reliable man for Manager of Branch Office we wish to open in this vicinity. If your record is O. K., here is an opportunity. Kindly give good reference when writing. THE A. T. MORRIS WHOLESALE HOUSE, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Illustrated catalogue 4 cts. stamps. 1-11-12t. Mr. Charlie Rodgers will leave in a few days for Owensboro, Ky., where he will go into business. Mr. Rodgers has been with the E. W. Gamble Grocery Company for several years, and has many friends in this county. Columbia regrets to give him up, but it is hoped that he will have much success in his new home.

R. J. Turner, the white man who was taken in charge by the officers last week at Mt. Pleasant on the charge of larceny, was carried to Nashville Saturday by Sheriff tight to be placed in the State asylum. However, the asylum management refused to accept him until he had been away from Mt. Pleasant for fourteen days, in order to prevent any possible contagion from smallpox.

The report comes from Columbia that an effort is being made at that place to organize a stock company for the purpose of running a line of automobiles from Columbia to Mt. Pleasant and from Columbia to Williamsport. The company, it is said, will have a capital stock of $2,000, of which $700 has already been subscribed. As soon as a flying machine is invented a few of these will also be put out to float between the above named places.—Mt. Pleasant Chronicle.

The report of the arrest of Martin Taylor on a warrant sworn out by Joe Nix, and the subsequent fact that the case was compromised, and that John Nix recovered his lost property and left town is objected to by young Taylor and some of his family, on the ground that the inference is that Taylor, who was charged with robbery, returned the money and other property so as to effect the compromise. As a matter of fact the case was reported correctly. It is but fair to add, however, that Taylor denies in toto the charges preferred against him, and disclaims any connivance at a compromise, or any knowledge of the money taken or its subsequent return.
